

seatwise side chair

VALO[®]

sleek and simple

available on the side

A side chair isn't just a side chair—it's a seat in a conference room, reception area, or an office that someone will use. That's why the Seatwise Side Chair isn't just any side chair. It's contoured for support, available with or without arms, in a multitude of colors, in two styles—sled base or four legged.

And it's made by Valo—where style, comfort and value are intricately woven to create furniture that works for you.

SW3100

Contoured Seat and Back

Provides body-hugging support while you sit. The waterfall front edge reduces leg pressure.

Rugged and Strong

The rugged metal frame with hard cover epoxy powder-coat finish makes the chair durable. And the steel core ABS arms fight wear and tear.

Multiple Options

Available in multiple colors and in two styles—sled base or four legged.
